Position:	English Teacher (Senior School, Grades 8-12)
Position Reports to:	Middle and Senior School Principal
Works Closely With:	Principal, Middle/Senior School; Director of Student Resource Center, Director of Student Engagement
Compensation	Salary Range $56,570 - 106,930 based on experience

Position Overview:

Aspengrove School, a JK-12 International Baccalaureate School, is inviting applications from passionate, enthusiastic individuals for the role of Senior English Teacher. Aspengrove is entering its 3rd decade as an independent school and has identified Exceptional Experiences as a pillar of its Next Steps Strategic Plan. We are currently seeking a passionate English Teacher to join our Senior School (Grades 8-12) faculty. The ideal candidate will bring deep subject expertise in English Literature and Language, strong experience with IB and/or AP curricula, and a forward-thinking approach to education. This individual will support our final year of the IB Diploma Language and Literature course while leading the transition to AP English offerings in the years ahead.

The appointed person will work collaboratively with the Principal of the Middle/Senior School, the Director of the Student Resource Centre, and Director of Student Engagement to define, develop, and lead our Senior English program at Aspengrove, ensuring our students have intellectually rigorous and inspiring educational experiences, inside and outside of the classroom.
