Start Date: August 2026

FTE: .8 FTE (4 Days)

Wage: $56,571 - $106,929

Aspengrove School is an independent, co-educational day school located on a stunning 40-acre campus in Lantzville, BC, on beautiful Vancouver Island. We are a Junior Kindergarten to Grade 12 International Baccalaureate (IB) World School offering the PYP and MYP Programme and a personalized graduation program enriched through Advanced Placement curriculum. Aspengrove is proud to be a university preparatory school with a deep commitment to educational excellence, innovation, and the holistic development of every learner.

At Aspengrove, we believe that exceptional learning begins with meaningful relationships and a strong sense of belonging. Our educators are more than teachers: they are mentors, collaborators, and lifelong learners who help shape a dynamic, inclusive school culture where every student is known, challenged, and inspired.

Aspengrove School is seeking a dedicated and knowledgeable Orton-Gillingham (OG) Teacher to provide structured literacy intervention for students with learning differences, including dyslexia. The successful candidate will work as a key member of the Student Resource Team and deliver explicit, systematic, and multisensory instruction aligned with Orton-Gillingham principles, supporting students in developing strong foundational reading and spelling skills.

Key Responsibilities

- Deliver individualized Orton-Gillingham instruction
- Assess students' literacy skills and use data to inform instruction
- Develop and implement structured literacy lesson plans
- Monitor progress and adjust interventions as needed
- Collaborate with classroom teachers, resource staff, and families
- Maintain clear documentation of student progress and programming
- Support a positive, inclusive learning environment
- Maintain regular, professional communication with parents regarding student progress, milestones, and strategies for home support.
- Provide detailed progress reports at the end of each term or grading period

Qualifications

- Orton-Gillingham training (Associate, Certified, or in progress)
- Degree or certification in Education, Special Education, or a related field
- Experience working with students with learning disabilities
- Strong understanding of structured literacy and phonics-based instruction
- Excellent communication, organization, and collaboration skills
- Experience in a school-based setting is an asset
